<c> The food code used is dependent on the repsonse to question 5 "Did you usually eat breakfast cereal?"
<d> The food code used is dependent on the repsonse to question 6 "What kind of fat did you most often use for frying, roasting, grilling etc?"
Food codes starting with an $x$ are foods with the amount of fat used in baking/frying and associated nutrients removed. The codes for fat from or <d> above, $x \quad$ specific to the individual, are added instead.
